National

UKA Indoor Championships, Birmingham (Sun. 23rd Feb.)

The 3000m race walks kicked off the track finals on day two with twotime Olympian Callum Wilkinson (Enfield & Haringey) claiming the men's title for the second year running, while Hannah Hopper (Cambridge Harriers; Noel Carmody), a silver medallist in 2022, won the women's crown for the first time.

Wilkinson said: "It is nice to be back indoors. This sets up a great year ahead for me. I am hoping I can be really competitive in Tokyo this year at the worlds. Last time [at the 2020 Olympics] it went well for me in Tokyo, so I really want to be in the top eight this time. I have worked really hard through the winter to make sure I am in the best possible shape for the season ahead." (Source: British Athletics)

Two athletes started the 3000m race, reports Andrew Clough, Fraser Higginson winning the U20 men's title in 17:46.80, and Megan Chantrell who earned a new PB of 19:22.39, winning the U17 women's title.

Later in the day seven walkers contested the 1000m race. With some in their first race, everyone gained a PB. Wrexham's Spencer Jones improved his Sheffield performance by nearly ten seconds, finishing with 5:18.38 in what is likely to be a Welsh U13 boys championship best performance. Nia Vale and Cerys Fitzpatrick could not catch Spencer, but engaged in an enthralling battle of their own for the U15 girls title. Nia's time of 5:33.78 was a mere three hundredths ahead of Cerys. Sixth finisher in 7:33.54 was Gwen Fitzpatrick the U13 girls champion.

Murray Lambden Open Walks, incorporating the National 20km Championships, Douglas, IOM (Sun. 2nd Mar.)

There were some fantastic performances and a whole plethora of personal bests across the board. Cameron Corbishley was the 20km winner in a time of 1:24:43. It's an indication of the quality that we have seen in this meeting over the years that this only makes him the 10th fastest in the history of the meeting - but his time today was the fastest since Rob Heffernan set the meeting record in 2001.

Matthew Glennon was second in 1:29:09, and the leading female in a fantastic third place overall was Aisling Lane in 1:41:51. This was her debut 20km, and remarkably she beat her existing 10km PB in both halves of the race! Oisin Lane was third male having walked in company with his younger sister for most of the race.

Neil Wade proved that he is right back in top form with a great walk for fifth place in 1:42:27 ahead of Jonathan Hobbs, whose time of 1:44:53 included a two-minute stop in the penalty zone after receiving three red cards from the judges. Second placed woman Abigail Jennings was next with 1:45:00 followed by Gianni Epifani, and there was a close battle for third woman with Helen Davies producing an outstanding performance to take it with a huge PB of 1:54:07 ahead of Emily Ghose and Grazia Manzotti.

Hannah Hopper won the 10km with a PB of 50:10, the 3km was won by Tim Perry with 14:43 with Sophie Davidson the first girl with 17:39. The 2km race was won by Lilee Fletcher-Merryweather with 9:53 followed by Spencer Jones with 10:43 and Jay Jay Fletcher-Merryweather with 10:55. In the 1km it was Harry Richards with 5:17 just one second ahead of Jack Davies, and first girl was Ameka Eardley with 6:00.

Race Walking Record – February 2025

It was great to see Tom Bosworth, a recent legend of British race walking and still a world record holder, over supporting an excellent group of young race walkers from the North West of England - not an area traditionally associated with race walking.

'A' Judged Races

Enfield Race Walking League, Donkey Lane (Sat. 15th Feb.)

After a six month phase of track races brought about by a series of unfortunate circumstances competitors were finally back on the road and the turn-out of twenty-four was the best since the Moulton Five in July last year, writes Ron Wallwork. It was bitterly cold, but thankfully dry and only a gentle breeze.

Abigail Jennings and George Wilkinson kept each other company for most of the race. Grazia Manzotti intended to use the race as pace training for the upcoming national 20km championship and getting in some extra distance by continuing beyond the advertised distance. She got caught up with Blackheath & Bromley's junior Florence Watson who was walking at well under six minute per km pace and decided to "go for it". Her reward was the breaking of the Master's W55 record.

Stefano Zenaro made a welcome return to League action and come the end of season could make Belgrave H a strong contender for the title.

The youngsters were in good form; Florence Watson sliced over a minute off her PB, Grace Andrews and Marissa Morley also set PB's and Lily-Ann Cooper made her 5km debut. Belgrave H with three in the top seven collected 196 points, Newmarket Joggers 180 and Aldershot F&D 175.
